

EXPLORING HISTORY

For nearly two centuries St. George's was the capital of Bermuda and a bustling centre of commerce and government. Today St. George's is a tranquil town flourishing with reminders of its rich history. Significant public and private buildings can be found on nearly every street of the old town centre all within easy walking distance of King's Square. Even names like "Old Maid's Lane" and "Shinbone Alley" tell a story of their past, making every stroll through St. George's narrow lanes a walk through living history.

SITES OF INTEREST

- 1 King Street Vicinity
State House, Bridge House, Reeve Court, Buckingham
- 2 Ordnance Island
The Deliverance, Sir George Somers Statue
- 3 Globe Hotel
Bermuda National Trust Museum
- 4 Tucker House
Bermuda National Trust Museum
- 5 Mitchell House
St. George's Historical Society
- 6 St. Peter's Church
- 7 Somers Garden
- 8 Town Hall
- 9 Samaritans Lodge
Bermudian Heritage Museum
- 10 Unfinished Church
Bermuda National Trust
- 11 Queen's Warehouse
World Heritage Visitors Centre

The Town of St. George
Photo courtesy of Bermuda
Department of Tourism

The Town of St. George map reproduced courtesy of the Bermuda Department of Tourism

■ HISTORIC AREA
■ PRE 1800 BUILDINGS
■ 1800-1900 BUILDINGS